NOTES & COMMENTS.

(by Mr. Frank).

As anticipated by experienced turfites, the card of nine events provided for the second day of the Bombay X'mas Meeting proved an intriguing one and a majority of the good crowd present on the occasion were unable to hit the mark except in the first three events, though some of the remaining well-fancied horses could have easily been in the money if their riders had been persevering enough. Some marked instances of jockeys failing to ride out their mounts have been noticed by most observant race-goers this season and it is to be hoped that the Stewards, who were very painstaking in reporting such instances last Bombay season, most of which were unfortunately not entertained by the Stewards, will continue to display their zeal and that they will receive proper support from the Stewards. It is unfortunate that Capt Cundell will be severing his connection with the Club so soon, but it is hoped that his place will be occupied by someone worthy of the important post. If an Indian is to be appointed according to popular opinion, so much the better, but it is hoped that the Stewards will use their discrimination in selecting a person competent and reliable enough not to fail in his duty to the racing public.

Magnificent Riding.

Billy Evans was responsible for some magnificent riding when he steered home four winners and placed in two of his remaining three mounts during the course of the afternoon. Evans was seen at his best on Karaway, the winner of the most important race of the day, the Windsor Plate, which resulted in a stirring finish, three short-heads separating the first four horses. No other jockey was successful in riding more than one winner and A. L. J. Talib was the only trainer to saddle a double which was incidentally a very popular case.

(48) A facile winner over seven furlongs in the Hamadan Plate, Amin al Iraq was the public fancy for the first division of the Novice Plate which was contested by all the nineteen acceptors, excepting Dahman Suri. With Fitzgerald riding a strong finish, the favourite got the better of Assaf Mahmud, Wafi Hamid and Masud Farhan, and subsequently survived an objection—frivolous objections appear to be rather frequent in these days—from the rider of Assaf Mahmud, who committed the blunder of attempting to get through on the rails and then resorted to an objection which was speedily overruled. ASSAF MAHMUD whose previous run in the Hamadan Plate was all wrong, will be able to make amends when next saddled. NAZAR, who hit the front early and was in the fighting line upto the distance post, will win a race with judicious riding. TRANSVAAL was moving well at the end and is likely to figure on the board in his next two outings. SHUMS AL IRAQ carrying about twenty pounds more on this occasion, ran a good race and must be watched over a slightly shorter journey again.

A Coming Champion

(49) The consummate ease with which Saif al Nusser beat his fifteen rivals in the second division of the Novice Plate after travelling well on the outside all the way, marks, Mr. Jarulla bin Talib's chestnut as a potential champion. Challenger, Misbah al Muluk and Fil al Iraq occupied the minor placings whilst Shireen who was heavily supported finished a close fifth. MIKHLIF PASHA received poor assistance from the saddle and the chestnut was hardly seen at his best. FIL AL IRAQ has been putting in some good work on the track and his easy fourth here indicates that he will soon display marked improvement. Considering his fluent victory of the opening day, SA'AD FARUQ ran a very poor race which could not have been his best effort and the grey was possibly inclined to leave the serious part of the race to his stable companion who could but finish a poor third.

(50) Cymro was heavily backed against his eleven rivals in the second division of the Tenby Plate and the Diaphon gelding, who is not thought to be very honest, justified the support by easily getting the better of Gold Gainer, Gordon and Royal Palace. Kingsborough who also found plenty of support failed completely to be in the picture and is evidently not a reliable customer. GOLD GAINER was used too much in the early stages in spite of which the Black Abbot gelding was a good second. Dr. Pillay will soon pick up a race with him. MISS AILEEN will probably display her form at an early date. ROYAL PALACE will be seen to advantage over a longer distance.

A Poor Start.

(51) Considering that there were only five runners, the start for the Bangalore Plate for Indian horses in the starred class was a poor one, Miss Lena being the chief sufferer whilst Miniver got the best of it. Bhutnath, who gave no indication of any sort of form when racing last in the Nursery Plate, created an unpleasant surprise by getting the better of the late-finishing Miss Lena, Vanity Fair and Pride of India. The running of the last two was far from being impressive and VANITY FAIR especially could have done much better if her rider had so desired. MISS LENA is evidently on the upgrade and the Titian filly will win a couple of races this season.

(52) Some confident betting on Levant in the first division of the Tenby Plate placed Mr. Manton's gelding at the head of the fifteen runners in the betting ring. Hugging the tail end of the field upto the bend, the Pantheon gelding moved up too late to appear in the fighting line and the race was easily annexed by Mademoiselle Eileen who prevailed over Birthday Gift, Sea Battle and Curialistic. LEVANT will make amends when next saddled. Though IRISH FORD and MISS GRENVILLE missed the board completely, both have been working well enough to prove dangerous in the future. MUSCADET was a forward runner and is worth watching.

(53) Teller was better backed than Who's Who and Love Call in the Manchester Plate, a sprint event for horses in class two. Though well served by Cook, the favourite was unable to concede nineteen pounds to Who's Who and could only finish a comfortable second behind Mrs. Svamvur's gelding who made a start to finish affair of the race. With a fine late run Coeur de Lion placed third in front of Twain. The distance was too short for LOVE CALL who apparently did not relish being hurried up. BEKORAH was noticed travelling very fast over the last furlong which indicates that the Birth-right gelding will figure prominently over a longer distance.

(54) The field for the second division of the Carlisle Plate for horses in class three was reduced to fourteen starters with Archmoon, Jovial Prince and Dominic sharing favouritism. All the three fancied ones were not in it at any stage of the race which was easily annexed by Tipperary from Kingsbury, Rigoletta and Remarque. DOMINIC and JOVIAL PRINCE appeared to be out for an airing, as travelling easy along the straight neither of them was extended and their riders were interested in the running of the bunch in front. The running of both these must be ignored. ACINOM was noticed finishing strongly and the Silverburn mare will soon be striking form.

(55) The Windsor Plate, the chief event of the day, provided the most thrilling finish of the afternoon when Karaway, Bachelor's Bard, Gipsy Jack and Zuider Zee hotly contested the issue over the last furlong with the first named securing the verdict by the shortest margin and similar margins separating the other three. A subsequent objection against the winner by Bachelor's Bard for bumping was overruled. ZUIDER ZEE, who could have won race if he had challenged a trifle earlier, is regaining his form and will be hard to beat in next outing. MY BILLY finished close on the heels of the first four and it will not be long before Mistry's charge figures on the board.

(56) Brehan, an unlucky runner in both his previous outings, was installed a warm favourite for the first division of the Carlisle Plate which was contested by thirteen horses in class three. With Obaid riding a very well-judged race, King of France led from pillar to post and easily pegged back Fred Stephens, Toltec and Devonian. The favourite was not sighted at the finish and the cause of his miserable failure would interest his numerous supporters. TOLTEC may well be considered an unlucky runner, as travelling strongly along the rails on entering the straight, he was pocketted between the winner in front and Fred Stephens by his side and Burn was unable to get the best out of his mount. ACCIDENTAL will need watching over the six again. HAUT MONDE, a new one in Bell's care ran encouragingly enough to be remembered for the future.

Favourite—Amin al Iraq

(Winner trained by A. L. J. Talib)

Not run--Dahman Suri 7-9

Rs 10 First Tote Win Rs 22.

Places 14, 18, 38.

Tips—1 D'man Suri*, 2 (Amin al Iraq), 3. S. al Iraq
F. A Mahmud (b).

Good Chance and Mas'ud Farhan were the last to leave the barrier while Mujbil al Arab after jumping out with the rest was slowly into his strides. Mudrik showed out for a few strides and then Nazar took up the running from Golden Star, Musa'id al Khair and Shums al Iraq. Nazar and Golden Star were practically abreast at the head of the field as they passed the six and coming to the four the former held a slight break over Golden Star with Musa'id al Khair and Shums al Iraq prominent from the rest. As they passed the four Amin al Iraq moved up on the inside and followed Nazar into the straight. Shums al Iraq was ahead of the remainder. As they straightened out for home Amin al Iraq forged into the lead. Passing the second enclosure Assaf Mahmud moved up with a quick run on the inside and in a close finish was unluckily beaten by a neck. Wafi Hamid finished strong when placing another five lengths away third while Mas'ud Farhan was a further neck away fourth.

Rs. 10 First Tote Win Rs. 26. Places 14, 20, 20.

Tips—1. Challenger (b), 2. Shireen, 3. (S. al Nusser), F. M. al Muluk (c).

On settling down Mamluke was seen leading from Saif al Nusser, Hilal Beg and Fil al Iraq. Hakim Pasha had struck the front at the six, Hilal Beg lay second, Saif al Nusser third, Misbah al Muluk fourth, Fil al Iraq fifth and Shireen sixth. Hilal Beg fell back at the four where Hakim Pasha was still in the lead. Saif al Nusser had now moved into second place, Misbah al Muluk was running third, Fil al Iraq fourth, Mahrus al Iraq fifth and Challenger sixth. Hakim Pasha retained the lead to the turn and entered the straight chased by Saif al Nusser, Fil al Iraq, Challenger, Misbah al Muluk and Shireen. Hakim Pasha retired as they straightened out for home and Saif al Nusser shortly after established a lead of lengths. Passing the second enclosure Challenger, Misbah al Muluk and Fil al Iraq broke away from the bunch and went in chase of Saif al Nusser, who was however, moving easy and without being extended cantered home a winner by two and a half lengths. Challenger held Misbah al Muluk for second place by another half a length, while Fil al Iraq finished fourth a further one and a half lengths off.

Rs. 10 First Tote Win Rs. 29. Places 13, 22, 14

Tips—1. (Cymro), 2. Gold Gainer (b), 3 Kingsborough, F. Gordon (c).

From a good start Curfew III showed out for a few strides from Mount Dil and then the latter took command from the Southern Cross, Gold Gainer, Gay Lady, and Cymro. Gold Gainer had assumed command of the running coming to the four with Southern Cross, Curfew III and Cymro heading the remainder. Gold Gainer continued to lead at the turn and swung into the straight chased by Southern Cross, Gay Lady, Cymro, Curfew III, Mount Dil and Royal Palace. Gold Gainer retained the lead to the stands where Symro drew out and passing into the lead went on to score in comfortable fashion by one and a half lengths. Gold Gainer held Gordon for second place by two lengths and a similar distance separated the last named from Royal Palace who placed fourth.

Rs. 10 First Tote Win Rs 96. .Places 33, 18.

Tips—1. Pride of India (d), 2. Advance*, 3. V. Fair (c), F. Miss Lena (b).

Miss Lena was hopelessly left on the release of the barrier, while Miniver struck the lead from Bhutnath, Vanity Fair and Pride of India. As they passed the five, Miniver was leading by four lengths from Bhutnath. Vanity Fair and Pride of India were another two lengths behind while a similar distance separated the last mentioned pair from Miss Lena. Miniver was still cutting a fast pace at the turn and entered the straight followed by Bhutnath, Pride of India, Vanity Fair and Miss Lena. As they straightened out for home Miniver weakened and Bhutnath forged into the lead. Pride of India and Vanity Fair endeavoured to get on terms coming to the stands, but could make no impression. Passing the stands, Miss Lena flashed up on the outside and challenged, but Bhutnath held a comfortable lead and went on to win by a length. Vanity Fair held Pride of India for the last placing three-quarters of a length off and a neck ahead of Pride of India.

Tips—1. Sea Battle (a), 2. Birthday Gift (b), 3. Soltero, F. Curialistic (d).

Curialistic left the barrier slowly while Birthday Gift led for a few strides and then made way for Irish Ford the latter continuing to make play from Birthday Gift. Mon Cheri, Curialistic which had moved up with a fast run, Dark Wings and Sea Battle. Passiflora II lay last and Le Mas second last. Irish Ford continued to lead at the five. Mon Cheri was now running second, Curialistic third, Muscadet fourth, Birthday Gift fifth, Sea Battle sixth, Dark Wings seventh, Tobralco eighth and Night Alarm ninth. Levant was acting as whipper-in. Irish Ford still retained the lead at the turn and entered the straight followed by Curialistic, Birthday Gift, Mon Cherie, Muscadet, Night Alarm, Sea Battle, Mademoiselle Eileen, and Levant, the last named moving strong on the outside. Irish Ford retired as they made for home and Mademoiselle Eileen now put in a strong run through the middle and striking the front passing the stands went on to win comfortably by one and a half lengths. Birthday Gift held the late finishing Sea Battle for second place by another short-head and Curialistic was a further one and a half lengths away fourth.

Tips—1. Love Call, 2. Teller (b), 3. Twain (d), F. (Who's Who).

Britebeard was fractious at the post and delayed the start slightly. On the rise of the tapes he was quickest away and led for a few strides on the outside and then Coeur de Lion took command of the running from Gullible and Love Call. Shortly after, Gullible had gone into the lead, with Love Call, Who's Who, Twain, Teller Cash Book Coeur de Lion and Britebeard following. Ticanto lay last. There was little change in the order of running to the turn, and Gullible and Who's Who entered the straight together chased by Teller, Cash Book, Love Call and Twain, the last named moving strong on the outside. Gullible retired as they straightened out for home and Who's Who was left in sole command. Passing the stands, Teller made desperate efforts to get on terms with the leader, but to no avail and Who's Who finished full of running to win with a length to spare. Coeur de Lion moved up with rapid strides in the closing stages to finish another one and a half lengths away third, while Twain was a fourth a further length off.

Tips—1. Dominic, 2. Archmoon, 3. J. Prince, F M. Carlo

On settling down, Grenadier showed the way to Natbay. Kingsbury, Dominic and Tipperary. Natbay had taken command of the running from Grenadier at the five, and these two were followed by Tipperary, Kingsbury, Jovial Prince and Remarque. Natbay was still slipping along in front coming to the turn, and was first into the straight chased by Tipperary, Grenadier, Kingsbury, Remarque. Archmoon, Dominic and Jovial Prince. As they approached the distance post, Tipperary forged into the lead, and travelling easy for the remaining distance the last named scored a comfortable win by one and a half lengths from Kingsbury. Rigoletta came with a terrific late run to place third another head away, and Remarque was a further half a length off fourth.

Tips—1. B. Bard (b), 2. Titanium, 3. Z. Zee (d), F. Synagogue.

Bachelor's Bard was quickest into his strides followed by Dignitary. After they had travelled a short distance, Gipsy Jack had assumed command of the running from Titanium, Synagogue, Bachelor's Bard, Dignitary, Karaway, Zuyder Zee and My Billy. Mistral lay last. They raced in this order to the turn, and Gipsy Jack entered the straight closely pursued by Titanium, Bachelor's Bard, Synagogue, Karaway and Zuyder Zee. As they passed the second enclosure, Synagogue retired from the fray, while Karaway moved up with a quick run and forged ahead of Gipsy Jack. Closer to the winning post, Bachelor's Bard and Zuyder Zee closed on the leaders. In a thrilling finish in which short heads separated these four horses they passed the post in that order.

Haut Monde was the last out of the barrier while King of France cracked the pace from Fred Stephens. Devonian, Greek Artist, Accidental, Rosewood and Brelan. Devonian had moved up into second place behind King of France at the five, Greek Artist now lay third, Fred Stephens fourth and Rosewood fifth. There was little change in this order of running to the turn and King of France swung into the straight ahead of Devonian, Greek Artist, Fred Stephens, Toltec, Accidental, Rosewood and Brelan. Midway up the straight, Fred Stephens closed on King of France and for a few strides appeared as though he had got the measure of the former, but Obaid had King of France well balanced and responding to his rider's efforts held Fred Stephens at the winning post by half a length. Toltec finished strongly to place another length away third while Devonian was a further half a length off fourth.
